JUST LIKE SELMA

A National PSA & Hymn-sing Project

SPOKEN INTRODUCTION

This month marks the centenary of Negro History Week—now known as Black History Month—founded by Dr. Carter G. Woodson in 1926. To commemorate this 100th anniversary, we join more than 100 organizations nationwide in presenting a new social justice hymn by the chief music editor of the African American Heritage Hymnal, Nolan Williams, Jr.

“Just Like Selma” recalls the Civil Rights marches that helped secure passage of the Voting Rights Act and challenges us to summon that same courage and conviction as we confront present-day threats to our democracy.
